Lunch

1:30-2:30
Workshop 2

Workshop titles are forthcoming.
They range from Catholic Social
Teaching to Praying with Children.

In preparation for the Third Edition of the Roman Missal, Kathy Coffey will help catechists, catechetical leaders, youth ministers, liturgists, teachers, and other adults understand the revised English translation of the Mass and how to prepare children, youth, and adults.

Kathy will also share insights regarding the Eucharist, which is the source and summit of the Catholic faith and our Catholic lives. The Liturgy of the Eucharist touches every area of catechesis including how we live out the faith and share the Good News with all. Come and learn how the Eucharist can have a tremendous impact on your students!

About the Presenter

Author, teacher, and international presenter - friend, colleague, and wisdom figure for the Church

Kathy Coffey has won thirteen writing awards from the Catholic Press Association. She is the mother of four, and a well-known speaker who gives retreats and workshops both nationally and internationally.

You might think of Kathy Coffey as the "Poet Laureate" of Christian spirituality because her writing is so lyrical and lovely. Her images remain with you long after you put down her book.
